Universal Connection Rug

The Nature Collection

Universal Connection Rug

Description

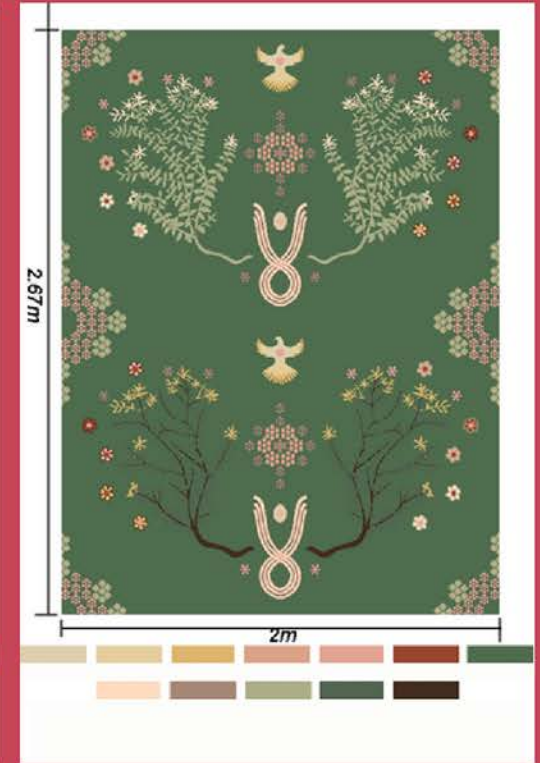

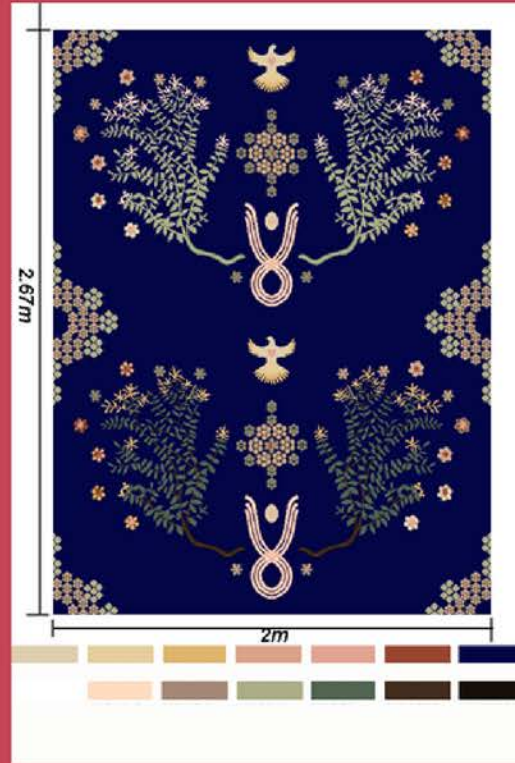

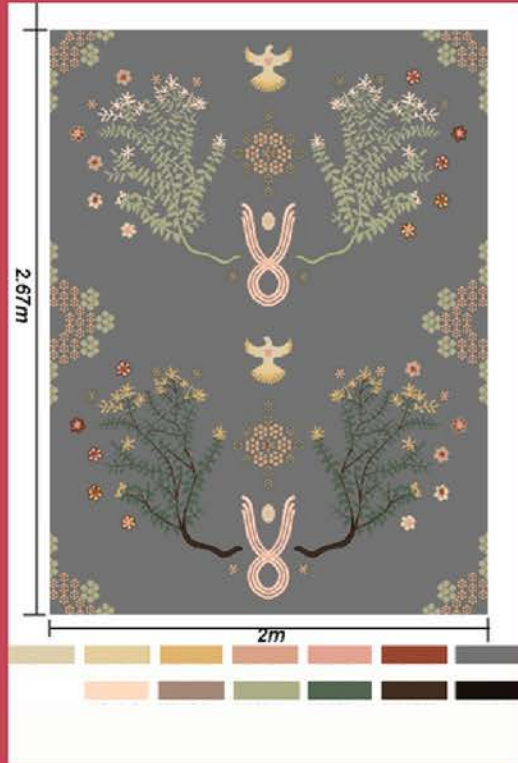

A universal cultural weaving pattern that is born out of creation where all life is interconnected and sacred. It speaks of our united human connection and the lattice of life that is rhythmic and seasonal. We weave and tell stories that keep our ancestral knowledge alive.

Emerald Garden Rug

The Nature Collection

Emerald Garden Rug

Description

The Emerald Garden is a story of regeneration where we are invited to mirror nature by being true to ourselves, working with the potential to co-create vitality and higher order for all life to flourish.

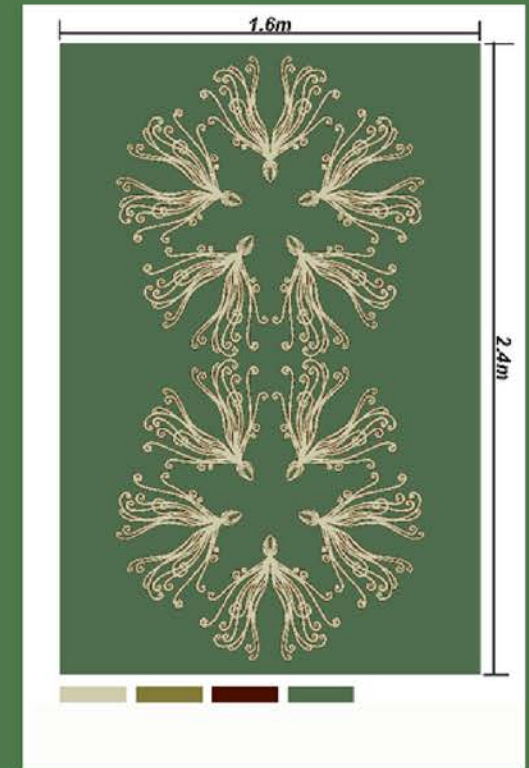

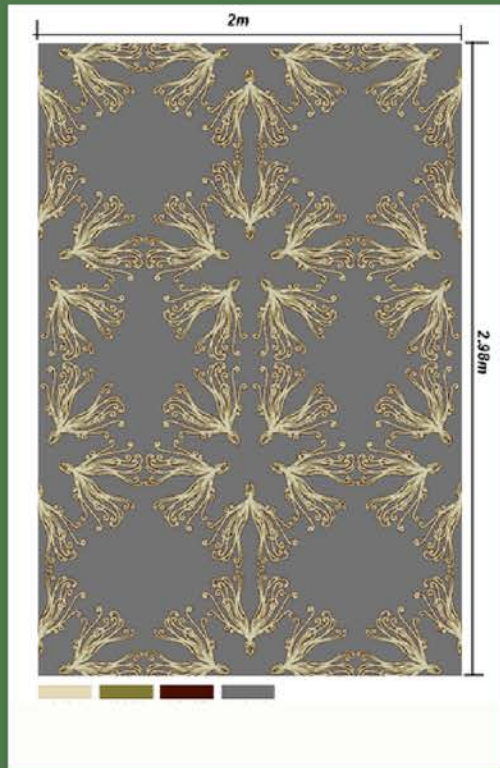

The akatoki plant symbolises the 'tree of life', the chalice is the symbol for 'potential', the geometric flower at the centre is one's 'essence', the dove is the 'higher self'.

Seed Rectangle Rug

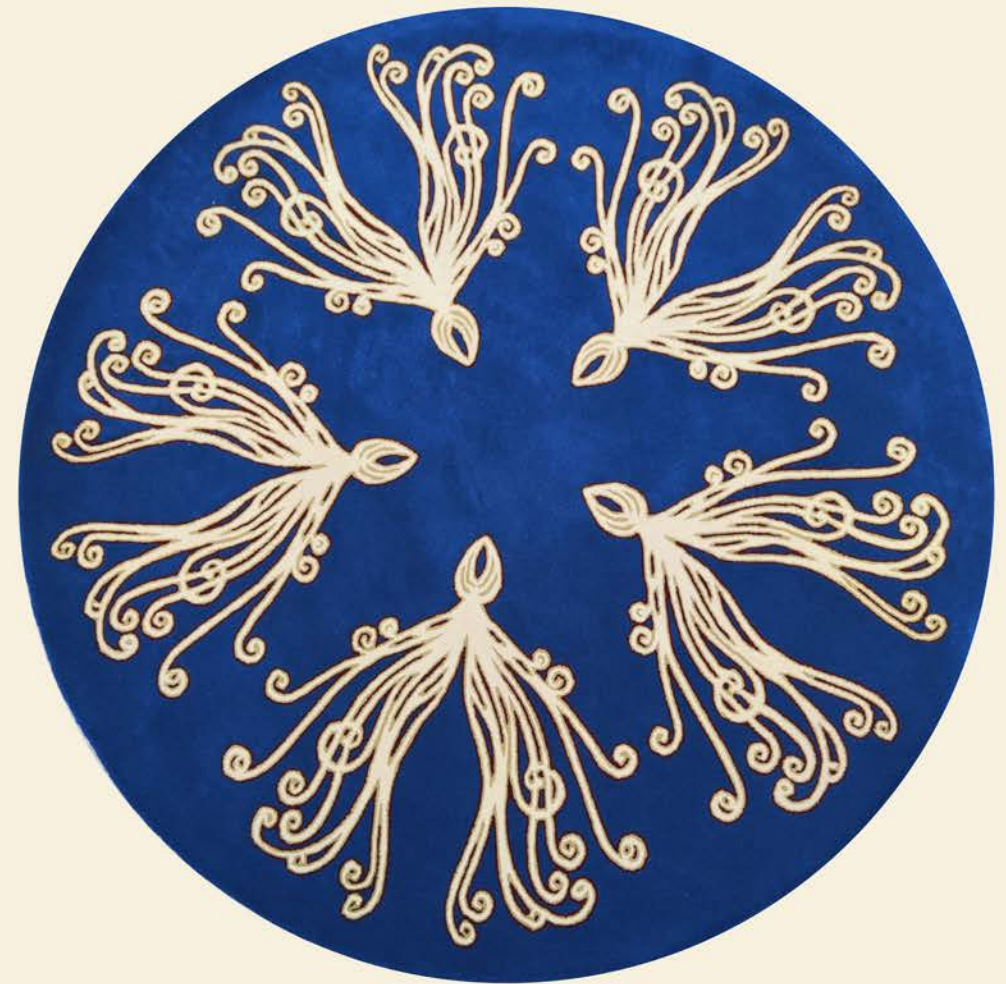

The Nature Collection

Seed Rectangle Rug

Description

The organic seed formation reveals new life, reflecting the growth of a bud opening to share its unique essence and wonder like the spiralling fronds of the fern. Expanding, creative and energizing.
