FIRST PRIZE $15,000

The judges of HOME New Zealand's Home of the Year award are looking for excellence and innovation in New Zealand residential architecture. The winning architects will receive a $15,000 cash prize. Entries this year are due at 5pm, Thursday December 15, 2011.

HOW TO ENTER Entrants must submit up to 12 colour photographs of their completed project, including interior views, as well as presentation floor plans, elevations, a 150-word description of the aims of the project and the entry form on this page. These should be submitted as hard copy presentations and in digital form on disc. Entries must be sent to the postal or courier address at right. Email entries will not be accepted. A shortlist of homes will be selected by our judging panel and visited in February.

ENTRY CONDITIONS 1 Instructions on how to enter form part of the terms and conditions of entry. Entry implies acceptance of the terms and conditions. 2 The competition is open to anyone with a project that has been built recently in New Zealand, except the employees of ACP Media and Altherm Window Systems, their immediate families, dealers and agents. 3 Only fully completed and furnished New Zealand homes or renovations are eligible for entry. Projects must be unpublished and not committed for publication in a New Zealand mainstream commercial publication during 2011. What constitutes a mainstream publication is up to the judges' discretion. 4 ACP Media and HOME New Zealand reserve all first rights to publication of all entries, and also to publicity and/or promotional activity, including television coverage. 5 ACP Media reserves the right to photograph, film and otherwise record all entries and judging processes, including architects, designers and any associated parties (notwithstanding Condition 6) for promotional purposes and related projects. 6 Homeowners' names and addresses must be supplied at the time of entry but may be withheld from publication, promotions and publicity at the owners' request. 7 Collaborative projects must be acknowledged on the entry form by listing all parties involved. 8 It is the responsibility of entrants to seek the consent of all design parties and homeowners involved. 9 Entries must be received by 5pm, Thursday December 15, 2011. 10 The winning designer or designers of the Home of the Year award will receive a $15,000 cash prize. A cheque will be presented at an award function in April 2012. The winner and finalists in the award will be published in the magazine's April/May 2012 issue. The judges' decision is final; no correspondence will be entered into.
