INVISIBLE VISIONARIES COLLECTION

BENTLEY

Backstage

A costume designer spends unimaginable hours creating fabric personas for each member that steps upon the stage. Whether the actor or dancer is the star of the show or they function in a supporting role, every stitch and each sequin is tended to with the same meticulous care. The months, weeks, and days leading up to a performance find themselves filled with countless sketches and fittings, but it is the hours and minutes prior to curtain that contain a certain chaotic magic. It's those moments in the wings that are filled with a hushed frenzy of last minute detail that truly highlight the talent of a costume design team. The quiet energy found behind the scenes is the source of inspiration for Bentley's Backstage. With muted color that supports the subtle movement of the patterning, this product is ready to step into the spotlight and become the star of your show.
